

Minimizing Facileness in the World

For Undergraduate Students

Peers in the World

*Say no to Facileness...
Take your place*

The Unicist Evolutionary Approach in the 4th Industrial Revolution

Help us
by sharing

Facileness is Expanding too Fast

Facileness implies making what one believes, wants or can do prevail over what is needed to be done. This program is focused on high school students to foster the substitution of facileness with an evolutionary approach.

A fully Sponsored Program:

- 1) The Unicist Evolutionary Approach
- 2) The Sporting Spirit
- 3) The Use of Unicist Riddles and the Practice of "GO"
- 4) The Use of Conceptual Mapping
- 5) Going beyond Dualism

Facileness Approach

1. Reactive
2. Past Driven
3. Survival driven
4. Improvisation
5. Utopias
6. Need satisfaction
7. Risks & Costs Transfer
8. Conflict avoidance
9. Shortcuts
10. Cleverness
11. Individualistic
12. Conjunctural
13. Under-developing
14. Volatility

Evolutionary Approach

1. Proactive
2. Present & Future Driven
3. Growth driven
4. Knowledge
5. Maximal Strategies
6. Minimum Strategies
7. Value Generation
8. Conflict Management
9. Pathways
10. Intelligence
11. Institutionalized
12. Structural
13. Developing
14. Sustainability

This Program is part of the Microeconomics Driven Development 50-year Project

www.unicist.net/economics/participate

Sponsored by:

The Unicist Research Institute

Pioneers in Research since 1976
www.unicist.org

Invite Friends & Family

Access the Program

www.unicist-school.org/peers-in-the-world
e-mail: n.i.brown@unicist-school.org

Organized by:

The Unicist School in Sciences & Technologies
Fostering Sustainable Growth

www.unicist-school.org